Box

1. Wages, tips and other compensationThis amount includes all federal taxable income for wages received during the calendar year. Pre-tax deductions, such as health insurance, parking deductions, flexible spending account deductions, and the administrative fee for the flexible spending account, reported in Box 10 and Box 14, have been deducted from your gross wages to determine your federal taxable wages. Tax shelter annuity contributions (Box 12E and 12G) have also been deducted from the gross wages. The amount reported in this box will differ from your gross wages because of these pre-tax deductions.

2. Federal Income Tax WithheldAll federal income tax withheld during the calendar year. If you add up all the Federal Income Tax withheld for the calendar year from the deduction history on Employee Self Service, it will total the amount in this box.
3. Social Security Wages
   All Social Security (FICA–Social Security) taxable income for wages received during the calendar year. The maximum wages subject to social security tax in 2017 was $127,200. The maximum wages subject to social security tax for 2018 will be $128,700.

4. Social Security Tax Withheld
   All Social Security (FICA–Social Security) tax withheld during the calendar year. If you add up all the FICA–Social Security withheld for the calendar year from the deduction history on Employee Self Service, it will total the amount in this box. This amount is equal to 6.2% of the wages in Box 3. George Mason University has made contributions at a rate of 6.2% of the wages.

5. Medicare Wages and Tips
   All Medicare (FICA–Medicare) taxable income for wages received during the calendar year. There is no limit on wages for Medicare taxes. Unlike federal wages, certain employee deductions for retirement savings do not reduce Social Security wages. This means that the figure in box 5 may be larger than the amounts shown in box 1 or box 3. In fact, it's likely the largest number on your W-2.

6. Medicare Tax Withheld
   All Medicare (FICA–Medicare) tax withheld during the calendar year. If you add up all the FICA–Medicare withheld for the calendar year from the deduction history on Employee Self Service, it will total the amount in this box. This amount is equal to 1.45% of the wages in Box 5. George Mason University has matched your tax contributions with an equal amount. Please note - Wages paid in excess of $200,000 in 2017 will be subject to an extra 0.9% Medicare tax that will only be withheld from employees’ wages. Employers will not pay the extra tax. The additional Medicare tax withheld is included in the total Medicare Tax Withheld that is reported in Box 6.
