

July 2017 Salary Increase Frequently Asked Questions

A. General Questions

1. What is the effective date of the raise?
 - Eligible 12-month (paid semi-monthly and bi-weekly) faculty and staff will receive their increase in the pay period starting July 10, 2017. SM paid on August 1, 2017, BW paid on July 28, 2017. Eligible 9-month faculty will receive the increase in the pay period starting August 25, 2017 and paid on September 15, 2017.
2. How will I know what my new salary will be?
 - Your new salary can be seen in Patriot Web on July 10, 2017 (12-month) or August 25, 2017 (9-month)
3. Who is eligible?
 - Full- and part-time instructional, research, administrative and professional faculty and classified employees employed on or before April 10, 2017 who remain continuously employed and have a satisfactory performance evaluation (most evaluations would have been completed Fall 2016).
4. What if I worked at a different state agency before being hired at Mason after April 10, 2017?
 - As long as you were hired in a state agency on or before April 10, 2017 with no breaks in service and have a satisfactory performance evaluation on file, you will be eligible for the July 10 performance based increase.
5. What if I was a wage employee or adjunct on or before April 10, 2017 and transitioned into a benefitted role before the July 10, 2017 effective date?
 - In order to be eligible for the 3% increase, you must be in a benefitted role on or before April 10, 2017.
6. I am paid from a grant or contract, is the increase optional if the funding is not available?
 - As this is a general increase authorized by the Commonwealth of Virginia, the increase is not optional and must be supported by the sponsor.
 - Please contact the Office of Sponsored Programs if you have questions regarding grants or contracts.

B. Faculty Increases

1. How much is the Instructional/Research and Administrative/Professional faculty raise?

- The fall 2017 Graduate Assistant Matrix will be posted on the Provost Office website at <http://provost.gmu.edu/graduate-student-appointments/>

F. Performance Evaluations

1. Do I need to evaluate all my employees?

- Evaluations are needed for employees who were hired or rehired between July 25, 2016 and April 10, 2017, or did not have an annual performance evaluation last fall.
- The administrative and professional and classified evaluations conducted last fall are sufficient. Employees not evaluated at that time will need to be evaluated. Evaluations are due in Human Resources and Payroll by June 14, 2017.
- Administrative and professional faculty without a 2016 evaluation rating may receive an interim evaluation.
- Instructional/research faculty prepared their evaluation materials based on the 2016-2017 academic year. They will be able to provide an early review for the January 2017 new hires.

- Deans must notify Human Resources and Payroll verifying satisfactory instructional and research faculty evaluations. Deans need to notify HR and Payroll by June 14, 2017.
- Classified probationary employees can be evaluated using the Probationary Evaluation form.

2. What should I do if one of my employees received a solid achiever rating in fall 2016, but their performance has deteriorated significantly?

- You should contact Employee Relations at 3-3878 for guidance as soon as possible and no later than June 1, 2017. Options that may be available are conducting interim evaluations, probationary evaluations or issuing a notice of sub-standard performance. If the performance is now unsatisfactory overall and documentation exists to support that, the employee may not be eligible for the increase.

3. When are the next annual performance evaluations due for administrative and professional and classified employees?

- Annual performance evaluations are due on October 24, 2017.

Important Implementation Dates
