Faculty/Staff Book Scholarship

How did the scholarship come about?
In 2010, Mason won the TIAA-CREF’s nationwide “Raise the Rate” contest and received a $25,000 endowment. Mason decided to establish a sustainable faculty/staff book scholarship.

What is it?
A competitively based $250 book scholarship.

Who is eligible?
Full-time and part-time faculty and staff who are enrolled in a degree program at Mason and have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.00 with a satisfactory performance evaluation.

What is the timeline?
Applications are due in mid-June and the recipient is notified in mid-August.

How do I apply?
Visit http://hr.gmu.edu/forms and scroll to “Faculty/Staff Book Scholarship” for the application.

Does the scholarship accept donations?
Contributions to the book scholarship foundation account are always welcome.

How do I donate?
Please visit http://supportingmason.gmu.edu, click on the "Give Now" tab, select "Other established fund" and fill in account #160013, Raise the Rate.